Advertisers.—The VERMONT DAILY TRANSCRIPT has the largest circulation in St. Albans and Franklin County, of any daily paper, and in that account, if no other, the best medium advertising.

Local Items.

OUR DAILY.—Those wishing to secure copies of our daily paper can do so at Herrick's and Baker's bookstores, as well as of carriers, and at the office. Copies of our weekly paper may also be had at these places.

Mr. H. I. Proctor, pianist, and Mr. D. Hopkins, Baritone, of St. Albans, will assist Camille Urso, who will give of her Grand Concerts at St. Albans, Tuesday evening Oct. 27, 1868.—See advertisement.

FRANKLIN COUNTY JAIL VOTES.—The Transcript of yesterday says: "The statement in the Transcript of yesterday that all the prisoners now confined in the Franklin County Jail go for Seymour and Blair is indignantly denied; for whatever other offenses they may be guilty of, ten out of the eleven refuse to have this burden added to their sins, and wish to vindicate their characters from the unjust aspersions." The Transcript made no such statement as is herein asserted. What we said was this: on the 15th inst., a vote of the prisoners in Franklin County Jail was taken and 7 votes were cast for Seymour and Blair and 1 none for Grant and Hax. Is that denied? Our informant was not taken from one of the number who was present and voted, but unfortunately our informant is not here; left on the early Monday morning for Windsor Prison to be gone two days. Since that vote was reported, official changes have taken place in the jail of voting, numbers have been added to it. Or, it may not be impossible that the inmates since their ballot, have arrived from Pennsylvania, Ohio, &c., and the same panic has seized them that is prevailing outside. We think it is change in the ballot is but an indication of what may be expected to take place all along the lines in November.

BASE BALL.—The "White Stockings" of Peru, N. Y., have challenged the "Eagles" of St. Albans, for a match game of base ball, to be played at Burlington, Oct. 30th. The "Eagles" have accepted the challenge, provided St. Albans be named as the place instead of Burlington.

MISFORTUNES MADE FELICITOUS.—General Fairchild, now Governor of Wisconsin, who received an empty left eye in battle, recently presented to General Stannard, of Vermont, who has a empty right eye for the same reason, half-dozen pairs of odd dress gloves, the East and the West are yet permitted to join hands, though the war of the rebellion did its worst to prevent it.

THE RECIPROCITY TREATY. It is rumored, as met with a headfall. The draft of treaty was prepared and approved, it is said, and the Canadian Commission is ready to leave for Washington, then orders from England put a stop to the proceedings. England believes in free trade for herself, it appears, but regards the diet as a little too stimulating for her colonies.

FINED.—John Foley, charged with calling a coat from the sleeping cars, was brought before Justice Sherman on Wednesday, and was fined $5 and costs, and, in default, was committed to jail.

GRAND TRUNK ROBBERY.—On Tuesday last, the money chest of the Grand Trunk Railway Company was broken open in a baggage car between Point St. Charles and Montreal, and $14,000 in gold was taken therefrom. It was a daring exploit in the daytime. The distance between Point St. Charles and Montreal is only three or four miles and the chest had been placed in the car as usual.

FREQUENT MISTAKES.—Mr. Rutland Herald, please put on your glasses and see if you found the article in your paper of the 21st instant, entitled "A fast young lady," in the Messenger, as you stated. The article alluded to originally appeared in the Transcript of the 19th and is copied verbatim et literatim from its columns. We should think a blind man might tell the difference. Please either steal outright or give credit correctly.

THE CUSTOMS DISTRICT OF VERMONT.—The value of goods imported into this district during the year 1867 was $2,315,214.53, upon which duties in gold was received, $177,769.73. Duties on merchandise entered in bond and paid in other districts $180,376.18, making a total in gold $358,145.87. The amount disbursed in currency in transacting the business of the department was $75,510.71; deduct for currency received in fees $13,118.30; amount received by Government for fines, forfeitures and penalties, $10,777.78; total cost of collection to the Government in currency, $51,634.63. Duties collected in gold during August and September, 1868, $142,958.—Burlington Times.

PATENTS.—Among the Patents issued, Oct. 13th, were one to Earl Guyer of Wolcott, Vt., for improved butter tub.

D. K. Hickok of Morrisville, for improvement in potato washer. Antedated Sept. 30, 1868.

J. B. Kelly & N. P. Kingsley of Brandon, for improved spring bed bottoms.

Francis Howlett of West Rupert, Vt., and Charles R. Sherman of Salem, for improved gearing for grindstones.

GEN. LEE, "THE CHRISTIAN GENTLEMAN."—Bluff Ben. Wade does not respond to the sentiment that the rebel General Chief is a high toned, honorable gentleman and a soldier, excusable for his lack of patriotic devotion to the Union by his weak loyalty to the Southern notion of State rights. Said Wade in a campaign speech in Ohio last week: "Let us see what kind of a Christian gentleman this Gen. Lee is. I know there is a disposition in some places to excuse this traitor from the just reward of his infamy, and yet, sir, he is the most sneaking, infamous rebel of the whole batch. I was there. I know how it was when the rebellion broke out. Scott was at the head of your army, commander-in-chief, and his chief of staff, his most intimate counselor, was Gen. Lee, most trusted by him, and most trusted by the country. He looked there in the councils of Gen. Scott, got all his plans, understood what he intended to do to put down the rebellion—there, as his confidential officer, lingering in his ranks until he had obtained the whole—and then sneaked into the Confederacy and swore allegiance to that, adding the perjury of his soul to hell to his treason. This is the Christian gentleman they talk about."

FULTON MARKET.—Just received, a nice lot Dried Beef, Sugar Cured Hams, Bologna Sausage, Sweet Potatoes, Tomatoes, Peas, Peaches, Water Melons, adn Musk Melons. dtd-94

WHAT MAKES YOUR HAIR SO BEAUTIFUL? MRS. S. A. ALLEN'S IMPROVED (new style) HAIR RESTORER OR DRESSING, (in one bottle.) Price One Dollar. Every Druggist sells it.

Pain-Killing Magic Oil is the thing to use for frost bites, chilblains, burns, scalds, bruises, contusions, and other painful troubles you ever tried. "It works like a charm." d&w.

A Distressing Cough, causes the friends of the suffering almost as much pain as the sufferer himself, and should receive immediate attention. Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry speedily cures coughs, colds, influenza, sore throat, &c. It will always relieve consumption, and in many well attested cases it has effected a perfect cure.

Quality and quantity are the two desirable attendants of "Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorative." The bottles are neither corked, thimbled, nor the preparation itself a worthless compound of deleterious minerals, as has been proved by the Award Committee of the N. H. State Agricultural Society.—Dorset Enquirer.

A busy man is a locomotive, and life a track. Every night he drives into "the house," and stops. Every morning he is fired up anew, and away he goes switching oil in one direction and then in another. In this routine of business he forgets that the physical organization is of the most delicate kind. If a hard locomotive needs constant care, and to be well oiled up and rubbed off every day how much more necessary is it that all men and women should use Plantation Bitters, which are the non plus ultra of everything which is necessary to keep the system in a perfect state of health.

MAGNOLIA WATER.—Superior to the best imported German Cologne, and sold at half the price.

For many years the Piano Forte has held unquestioned monopoly; but a growing taste for those orchestral effects in playing which the Piano cannot render, has turned attention to the Organ. Cleanliness, portableness, and convenience of manipulation are also advantages in the American Organs, as made by Messrs. S. D. & H. W. Smith, of Boston, which eminently recommend them for home, school, and chapel use. A day or two since we visited the new extensive manufactory of the above-named instruments, on Boston Neck, and were surprised at the vast amount of labor in operation, and the completeness of the appliances in use, from the heavy machinery which cuts the stock, to the delicate apparatus which fashions the key work and action. Messrs. S. D. & H. W. Smith are regarded as the best reed Organ manufacturers in the world, and although able to turn out one hundred instruments a week, they have found difficulty in filling orders, which come from all parts of the country. None who hear these popular instruments, with their sweet, sonorous, sympathetic and expressive tones, are surprised at the favor with which they are regarded by leading music men.

DEATHS.

In Fairfield, Au., 24, Clara E., youngest daughter of Chester R. and Sarah R. Burns, aged 2 years and 1 month.

As the sweet rose droops to bloom no more, She drooped to bloom on the other shore, And her beauty greater joy shall be In her home beyond the crystal sea.

Lovely her form while here on earth, Sweet her voice, so full of mirth, Day sweeter still those tones shall be In her home beyond the crystal sea.

Her eyes that were so softly bright Have lost, in death, their earthly light, But brighter far those eyes shall be When they wake beyond the crystal sea.

Clara, so joyful and full of mirth, Has taken her leave of this dark, dark earth, But Clara more full of joy shall be In her home beyond the crystal sea.
